

From expat to expats

Expat Chinese combines the best of Western and Chinese teaching methods to create both private and group lessons for foreign students.

Owner and head teacher Sara received her early education in Finland and received her BA and MA certificates in China.

Expat Chinese serves the expat community by offering a monthly free class for GWIC members.

Courses for different needs

Private lessons are always tailored according to the student's goals. Private lessons are great for those with busy schedules or specific needs. Special topics can include communicating with a nanny, workplace Chinese, passing HSK etc.

Group lessons offer interaction with other students and more opportunities for conversational practice. Expat Chinese has two weekly conversational groups: Beginner and Intermediate.

Expat Chinese also offers tailor-made short courses that concentrate on learning a certain skill. Our most popular courses include:

- How to shop on Taobao
- Using Chinese Didi Taxi -app
- Mobile paying with WeChat and Alipay

Mother-in-law approved!

Even my Taiwanese mother-in-law approved to sign up with Expat Chinese after meeting with Sara!

- Megan, USA

Professional&Engaged

I have found it helpful to learn from a non native speaker as she has experienced the issues herself.

- Michele, Australia

Truly recommended!

Expat Chinese did a great job getting me up and running with the basic phrases you need to get around in Chinese society.

- Christine, Sweden

Functional&Effective

The classes are always functional and effective. They prepare you for everyday situations, even for beginner students.

- Nadia, Belgium

Head teacher: Sara Jaaksola

Owner and head teacher Sara Jaaksola has a BA in Chinese language and MA in Teaching Chinese as a Second Language from Sun Yat-Sen University.

As a non-native speaker she has learned the language from scratch and knows the up and downs of learning Chinese.

Sara is in charge of designing courses, supervising lessons and teaching most of the lessons herself. All teachers at Expat Chinese have a masters degree in teaching.
